University is a great option for both those who know exactly what they want to do and for those who are undecided. Most courses can be flexible and open many doors.

University is a great time to have fun, meet new people and explore interests. Courses take about three years, depending on what you study and to what level.

Apprenticeships are quickly becoming the chosen route for those wishing to get valuable work experience whilst earning a living and working towards a professional qualification.

As an apprentice you'll be entitled to a wage plus other employee benefits and be open to excellent progression opportunities.

Carrying on with studying isn't for everyone and it's ok if you want to head straight into work or take time out to think about what you want to.

It can be easy to switch between routes if you change your mind so you can always move to an Apprenticeship or carry on your studies if you don't find your perfect job or fancy trying something new.

INTERNSHIPS

Internships, also known as Traineeships, are designed for people who want to develop skills and experience to boost their career prospect, providing essential work experience. They are short term and normally unpaid (funding may be available) but frequently progress into an Apprenticeship.
