CTA November 2020 - Kaplan Classroom Study Programme

Classroom (CR) Courses

Due to the social distancing measures currently in place, we plan on delivering the tuition phase of our November courses via live online. We anticipate that we will be able to deliver the revision phase in the classroom. Should guidelines change, we will review the opportunity to bring tuition dates back into the classroom too. To provide clarity, we have also colour coded our timetable to reflect this.

The original classroom dates due to run have been greyed out and replaced with the dates in the national Live Online column. Where there are two online options we have indicated in the original location columns whether your course has been mapped to option one or two. Dates in the original location columns have been struck through where the replacement dates differ.
